

Job Title:Osteopathic Principles and Practices Faculty, College of Osteopathic Medicine*Job Description:

The Osteopathic Principles and Practices (OPP) faculty in the College of Osteopathic Medicine (COM) assures osteopathic philosophy, osteopathic principles, and the osteopathic tenets are taught broadly throughout the curriculum. The primary responsibilities involve teaching osteopathic medical students the tenets, principles, and practices of osteopathic medicine. This occurs primarily within the OPP courses of the first and second years, as well as the development of an integrated osteopathic curriculum for delivery in the third and fourth years.

Reports to:Osteopathic Principles and Practices Chair*Classification:*Full-Time, Exempt Faculty*Essential Duties:

- Approximately 80% of time and effort is devoted to delivering instruction in first and second year medical student curriculum and to providing service (committee responsibilities, student mentoring, interviewing, etc.); Additional time dedicated to third and fourth year required elements; Work collaboratively with other faculty members to deliver and improve the integrated and interdisciplinary osteopathic medical curriculum in all four years; Work collaboratively with OPP student fellows to help grow a cadre of scholars; teaching osteopathic principles and practices/osteopathic medicine through the continuum of osteopathic medical education to include residents and other physicians.
- Approximately 20 % time devoted to scholarly activity and optional clinical activity:
 - Participate in educational research activities.
 - Provide supervision of medical students and their scholarly projects.

This job description is not intended to be all inclusive and the employee will also perform other reasonably related duties as assigned by the OPP Chair.

Qualifications/Education:*Minimum Qualifications:

- Board certified/eligible in any specialty, with significant experience and comfort teaching OMM/OPP;
- If Board eligible, the candidate agrees to obtain specialty board certification within a two-year time-frame
- Licensed to practice in any state and ability to be fully licensed in California.

Skills & Experience

- Experience in teaching foundational concepts relevant to osteopathic medical education;
- Experience using innovative teaching methods which include team-based learning flipped classroom and proficiency in COMLEX exam item writing.

Compensation:Position offers competitive wage based on experience plus benefits.

To learn more about our team, click here.

Application Instructions

Interested candidates are to electronically submit a letter of interest, a detailed resume and the names, titles, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least (3) professional references who may be contacted. Please send a completed package electronically to careers@chsu.edu and type Osteopathic Principles and Practices Faculty in the subject field of the email.