FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

First Art of Healing Showcase Hosted at CHSU Medical School

CLOVIS, Calif. – California Health Sciences University College of Osteopathic Medicine (CHSU–COM) is hosting its first art show at its campus in Clovis. The Art of Healing Showcase inaugural art show will feature finalists from Fresno State and Clovis High Schools who are competing in college and high school level art contests.

Earlier this year, art students from Clovis Unified School Districts and Fresno State were invited to submit their original artwork for the contest. The artwork submission topics were Internal Anatomy or Science Related to the Human Structure or Function.

Medical students from the CHSU Artery Club student organization selected the top six finalists to compete in the contest and will have their artwork displayed at the medical school for one year. Then members of the CHSU campus community voted on the artwork.

The contestants and their families are invited to The Art of Healing Showcase where the top 3 winners in the college and high school categories will be announced.

The news media is invited to attend this event. CHSU leadership and art show participants will be available for interviews.

Event: The Art of Healing Showcase
Date: Tuesday, October 6, 2026
Time: 6:00 – 7:30 PM (Art contest winners announced at 6:30 pm)
Location: CHSU–COM Simulation Center, 2500 Alluvial Ave, Clovis, CA 93611

About California Health Sciences University

California Health Sciences University (CHSU) is accredited by the WASC Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC). CHSU is the first university of its kind in the Central Valley and offers a local option for medical school and a master's in biomedical sciences to help remedy the shortage of health care services offered in the Valley.

The CHSU College of Osteopathic Medicine (CHSU-COM) is accredited by the American Osteopathic Association's Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA). CHSU-COM now has about 640 medical students in attendance. The first three classes of 2024, 2025, and 2026 achieved a 100% residency match rate. The CHSU medical school is accepting applications for its eighth cohort to matriculate in 2027 (link).

CHSU also offers a one-year Master of Science in Biomedical Sciences (MSBS) program at its College of Biosciences and Health Professions. The CHSU master's program is accepting applications for its fifth cohort of MSBS students to matriculate in 2027 (link).
