CHSU THE ONE HUNDRED

The One Hundred was founded by community leaders to advance charitable giving and student scholarship opportunity for future health care professionals in the Central Valley.

In partnership with California Health Sciences University (CHSU), The One Hundred mobilizes the power, passion, and principles of women committed to supporting CHSU students through scholarships.

The One Hundred vision is to inspire and transform the lives of students by making their health career education.

Through philanthropic activities, The One Hundred focus on these primary goals:

WOMEN EDUCATE the community about the urgent need to support health care education in the Central Valley.

WOMEN ENDOW a permanent fund whose annual yield supports Central Valley students pursuing post-graduate education in health professional disciplines.

WOMEN EMPOWER one another and students to serve the health care needs of people in the Central Valley.

We would be honored if you would consider becoming a Founding Member of The One Hundred
