

Preceptor Training

Receive 3 CE Credit Hours

at California Health Sciences University, College of Pharmacy
45 North Clovis Avenue • Clovis, CA 93612

Saturday, June 3, 2017

9 a.m. to 12 p.m.

California Health Sciences University is accredited by the California Accreditation of Pharmacy Education (CAPE) as a recognized provider of continuing pharmacy education.

Provider: Huma Ibrahim, PharmD (#215)

Faculty/Presenters: : Dr. Jacqueline Crouch PharmD, BCPS; Dr. AliReza FakhriRavari PharmD, AAHIVP; Dr. Quintin Broussard PharmD, BCPS, BCCCP

Document of attendance: will be received within 3 days after training date

Course expiration date: 3 years from training date

The California State Board of Pharmacy recognizes CAPE accredited program units for pharmacist license renewal. If you hold a license from another state, please check with that state's board of pharmacy for eligibility of CAPE continuing education credits.

CHSU Preceptor Training Objectives:

- Preventing Preceptor Burnout
- Working effectively with different adult learning styles
- Update on teaching/precepting strategies

Registration is FREE and includes breakfast.

To register go to:

<http://doodle.com/poll/7wyhk62iqguafphv>

Registration Required.

For more information please contact:

Jamielyn Shwetzter

559-546-6032

jshwetzter@chsu.org

CHSU
CALIFORNIA
HEALTH SCIENCES
UNIVERSITY

CHSU.org

CAPE
California Accreditation for Pharmacy Education

